Work experience

In the field of procedural law, Lawyer Yuan Yuan is mainly engaged in the retrial of civil and commercial cases, administrative litigation cases, handling of protests, criminal and civil cross business, and public interest litigation business; The substantive law fields involved mainly focus on construction engineering real estate, corporate equity and governance, mineral resources, intellectual property, and so on.

Lawyer Yuan Yuan has 15 years of experience in handling protest retrial cases. He has handled relevant cases in the national fourth level procuratorial organs, and was rated as one of the top ten professional pacesetters in the first national civil and administrative prosecution, and ranked first in case debate and reporting. Since acting as a lawyer in 2018, I have handled a number of typical protest retrial and procuratorial supervision cases, especially in the areas of false litigation supervision against effective judgments, supervision over the rejection of application for arbitration awards, and supervision over the enforcement of violations; In the field of administrative litigation, I have professional analysis and research on the transfer of mineral resources and the performance of administrative organs; In the field of construction engineering real estate, a number of difficult and complex cases have been handled by the highest court and local courts, and remarkable results have been achieved; In terms of corporate equity and governance, he can flexibly use non litigation and litigation techniques to successfully achieve the desired results for the parties. In the field of trademark rights in intellectual property, I have represented a number of civil and administrative (reconsideration) litigation cases involving trademark infringement and unfair competition that have had an impact throughout the country, with good results.
