

高朋律師事務所
GAOPENG & PARTNERS

Wang Yu

Partner

📍 Beijing

Email: Wangyu01@gaopenglaw.com

Telephone: 010-59241188

Areas of practices

Criminal Practice,

Work experience

In the field of government and administrative law practice, wang yu has served as a number of national ministries and commissions, provincial administrative organs and institutions, industry associations, primary and secondary schools permanent legal adviser, involving education, meteorology, government procurement and many other fields. Wang Yu lawyer since his career has undertaken hundreds of various types of administrative reconsideration, administrative litigation cases and related legal advice, many times on behalf of the state ministries and commissions and administrative organs at all levels to appear in court to respond to lawsuits, on the government administrative legal issues with in-depth understanding of the law and a wealth of experience in the litigation, won the trust of the customer.

Criminal practice area: Wang Yu lawyer in the procuratorate during the work for economic crimes, crimes and other types of criminal cases hundreds.

Educational background

Master of Laws (LLM), Graduate School of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Representative cases

Representative cases

- Acting for an institution in a case in which an administrative penalty was imposed on the institution; after a hearing, the institution was given a reduced penalty, and the main person in charge of the institution was not subject to an administrative penalty;

- Acting for the administrative organ in the case of reviewing the ‘0 marks for the retest results of a number of candidates in the 2021 Master's Degree Examination of Renmin University of China’;
- Acting for the education administrative department in appealing education administrative cases involving disputes over the autonomy of higher education institutions to run schools, expulsion from school, cheating in examinations, admission of postgraduate students, certification of academic qualifications, and complaints by teachers;

Working language

- Chinese